

HighCamp Welcomes Colleen Marencik as Partner

Issued: September 2021

Denver, Colorado - We are excited to announce that Colleen Marencik has joined HighCamp as its newest Partner. Based in Denver, Colleen brings over 20 years of regulatory, consulting, and in-house experience specializing in the private fund space.

Colleen was previously a Director at ACA Group and spent over 11 years providing consulting services and customizing compliance programs for real estate, private equity, and hedge fund managers.

"I'm thrilled to be joining HighCamp. It is a great team with a strong and committed client base, who I look forward to serving," said Marencik. "Coupled with their devotion to uphold the highest standards of conduct and have fun while doing it, I knew it was the right fit for me."

Brad Burgtorf added, "We are very excited to have Colleen join our leadership team. She shares in our core values and passion for providing exceptional client service. On the technical side, she has been a mentor to me throughout my career. I know our clients will find her expertise and guidance to be an invaluable resource."

Colleen previously worked at the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission for five years performing examinations of registered investment advisers. She also worked in-house as the Chief Compliance Officer of Walton Street Capital, LLC a private equity real estate manager. Outside of the office, Colleen is an avid traveler and can be found on hiking, kayaking, and whitewater rafting adventures with her family.
